Erratum

After publication of the original article [1] the authors found that the link provided for the supporting datasets in the ‘Availability of data and materials section’, was not working in the original article.

This was because it was redirecting to the incorrect link containing www: <https://www.doi.org/10.6084/m9.figshare.c.3780956>

The correct link for the supporting datasets is available here: <https://doi.org/10.6084/m9.figshare.c.3780956>
